

DEEP SEA DUEL

Rules:

- Players alternate choosing one card at a time.
- The winner is the first player to realize that he or she holds three cards with a sum of 15.
- If all nine cards are chosen and neither player has three cards with a sum of 15, then the game is a tie.

One additional variation that can be created involves fractions:

$1/6, 5/24, 1/4, 7/24, 1/3, 3/8, 5/12, 11/12, 1/2$

- The object of this game is to select three cards with a sum of 1.

DEEP SEA DUEL

Rules:

- Players alternate choosing one card at a time.
- The winner is the first player to realize that he or she holds three cards with a sum of 15.
- If all nine cards are chosen and neither player has three cards with a sum of 15, then the game is a tie.

One additional variation that can be created involves fractions:

$1/6, 5/24, 1/4, 7/24, 1/3, 3/8, 5/12, 11/12, 1/2$

- The object of this game is to select three cards with a sum of 1.